Rubia Granda Runs to Her California Form—Police
Restored to Brighton Beach and Order Results.

New York, July 17.—A gale of wind of tremendous velocity from the nearby ocean swept the Brighton Beach race course while racing was going on this afternoon. It penetrated every nook and cranny of the big lattice-work grandstand. The 5,000 or more race-goers present intent on the grand sport developed were unmindful of the acute discomforts. The big crowd was unusually demonstrative and continuously voiced its appreciative applause. Yesterday's series of inexcusable arrests by Elder's overzealous hirelings, in their efforts to be in line with the anti-racing policy of the young and persevering acting district attorney of King's county, had caused a tremendous revulsion of feeling overnight among all classes of people and it found expression in today's surprising attendance. Commissioner of Police Blinham, himself aroused to quick action, afforded relief by sending out twenty-four stalwart bluecoats to preserve order and they did. There were eight arrests made, all in the field. Sam Klein, Henry Klein, Sam Goldstein, Henry Latin, Jack Newman, S. Ellis, Nick Muller and Ray Hart, and they were very orderly conducted ones indeed. A squad of uniformed police escorted the arresting party out of the grounds on each occasion.

It had been generally expected that the Brighton Beach Racing Association would apply today for an injunction similar to the one secured a few weeks ago by the Coney Island Jockey Club, but no one at the track had knowledge that such action had been taken. William Engeman was not here, neither was his counsel, Charles H. Hyde. C. J. Fitzgerald, president of the association, is ill at his home.

Rubia Granda, Thomas H. Williams' beautiful Greenan filly, closed today's proceedings with a brilliant victory and a big public following. The California filly finally displayed a glimpse of the form which caused her owner to ship her thirty-five hundred miles for the express purpose of winning the Astoria Dinner Stakes at Gravesend. Rubia Granda was the fourth favorite on the card to reward form backers and her success aroused the utmost enthusiasm.

Very good as well as profitable racing had preceded this. Tilting came into his own in defeating with ridiculous ease such fast horses as Kentucky Beau, Ellisdale, Colonel White and three others in the opening race. Short Cut, another public choice, scored in even more decisive fashion in the race following. In the third, however, Great Pirate only won out in the last couple of strides of a struggle of doubtful issue for the entire journey. The sequence of victories for favorites was broken in the handicap at six furlongs won by Rialto under Dugan's masterly horsemanship. This proved the outstanding feature of the day. King Cobalt, the top weight, leading to the last stride before he succumbed. Prejudice was virtually left at the post and Miller did not persevere with him.

The steeplechase finally witnessed the downfall of Waterspeed, which has been having her own way with unvarying regularity of late. Prince of Pilsen, which seemed a beaten horse at almost every stage of the journey, suddenly overhauled the fast Watercross mare in the stretch and won as his rider pleased.

FAVORITES BADLY ROUTED AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., July 17.—Josie's Jewel, by scoring a nose victory over Eckersall in the fifth race, saved favorite backers from a rout at the Meadows today. All the other favorites were badly beaten, four of them finishing outside the money. Lula G., Sophomore and J. F. Donohue made up a trio of winners at long odds, all of which were supported by sharpshooters. Past work accounted for the backing accorded the first-named. The card was made up of a series of mediocre horses and the race won by Josie's Jewel furnished the only close contest of the day.

J. F. Donohue, in winning the fourth race at a mile and a quarter, ran the distance in 2:05, clipping a half second from the previously existing record. He won in a manner suggesting that he could have done considerably better had it been necessary.

After the inglorious showing made by El Chihuahu, favorite for the third race, the judges announced the indefinite suspension of Jockey Sandy, who rode that horse. Sandy has been in wretchedly bad form in the saddle here and his suspension came more as the result of the culmination of a series of bad rides than on account of this specific case.

J. A. Lynch and Ed Hickok arrived today from Calgary, the former with Sam McGibben, Head Dance and Athor, and the latter with Pelham. These horses have been racing successfully over the West Canada Turf Association's circuit. The Canadian division of G. P. McNeil's stable is also en route here. Iras, Dave Weber and De Grammont, which Sam Durkin shipped to Canada, have also been sold in that country. Lynch reports that promoters of racing in western Canada are planning for a circuit of meetings of not less than a week's duration each for 1909.

EMPIRE CITY AND BROOKLYN PROSPECTS.

New York, July 17.—It was about certain that during the Empire City meeting at the Beach next month the Keene, Whitney, Belmont and Madden stables would be represented in practically all of the important stakes and by their best horses. Matt J. Winn believes that the meeting will provide racing that will compare favorably with the sport at all of the other big tracks.

So far the Brooklyn Jockey Club has not outlined its plans for the fall meeting at Gravesend. P. J. Dwyer is away for his health just now, but his friends say that he will run all of the stakes and will also offer overnight purses about on a par with those now being decided at the Beach.

TEN THOUSAND POUNDER TO YOUR MAJESTY.

London, July 17.—The twenty-first renewal of the $50,000 Eclipse Stakes at Sandown Park this afternoon resulted in the success of Mr. J. B. Joel's three-year-old bay colt, Your Majesty, by Persimmon—3 years. He was at 100 to 8 in the betting and ten horses ran. Mr. Leopold de Rothschild's three-year-old bay colt, Santa Strato, by Victor Wild or St. Frusquin—Pie Powder, was a good second and Mr. L. Neuman's three-year-old bay or brown filly, Siberia, by St. Simon—Sirenia, finished third. The race, which is run over the Eclipse course of about a mile and a quarter, was witnessed by a great concourse of people.

SOFT GOING BRINGS UPSETS AT WINDSOR.

Lizzie Flat Takes the Steeplechase—El Dorado Cut Down—Tom Dolan Wins Easily.

Detroit, Mich., July 17.—A change in the going upset calculations of form players at Windsor this afternoon. For the first time during the meeting the track was deep and heavy and it took a pretty solid horse to traverse the footing successfully.

Only two favorites won, Nancy and Tom Dolan being the successful choices. The latter was held at a short price by the layers, so his victory did not help the public to any great extent. While the card lacked good class horses, still a majority of the races were well contested, four of the finishes being of the driving order with small margins separating the first two in three of them. Powers again carried off the riding honors with two victories. Two of the biggest disappointments of the afternoon were Ayer Water and Nat B. Both were heavily backed, but neither of the pair showed a disposition to run to their best form in the going.

The steeplechase was a spectacular race for the major part of the distance. Lizzie Flat finally winning in easy fashion. At different stages of the trip both Lights Out and Sam Farmer appeared certain winners. Going to the thirteenth jump Sam Farmer moved up with a rush but quit as suddenly after getting to the front, and at the end Lizzie Flat again drew away and won easily.

In the seventh race El Dorado, a heavily backed favorite, was jumped on and cut down before he had got a quarter. The going just suited him and his connections made no secret of the fact that they expected him to win easily. The result was that the public fell in line when the stable money went on and the horse was backed down to a short price at post time.

The result of the investigation of the Jersey Lady race will be handed out tomorrow. Evidence produced by W. O. Joplin that showed he had wagered heavily on the mare in her previous race and reports from the out-of-town rooms also showed that a stiff commission had been placed on her away from here in that race.

Bob Kirkwood was one of the visitors at Windsor this afternoon. His mission here is to solicit horsemen to ship to Toronto to race at Dufferin Park, a half-mile track, owned by A. Orpen, the poolroom king of Canada.

Jockey Kennedy, under contract to C. Pangritz, was assaulted by a stable hand named Ham Jones last night. Kennedy was beaten into insensibility with a club and it will be some days before he is in condition again to ride. Jones will probably be ruled off by the local officials for the assault.

Edward Corrigan was a visitor at Windsor this afternoon. He arrived in the morning and left last night for Cincinnati. Mr. Corrigan said his visit here was of pleasure. He related his own experience of disposing of all the horses he owns.

News reached here this afternoon of the death of the old-time steeplechase rider, George Mattocks, who was killed while schooling one of the Queen City Stable's jumpers at the Cedar Grove Farm near Toronto.

ENGLISH YEARLINGS SELL FOR HIGH PRICES.

The yearlings owned by the late Duke of Devonshire came under the hammer at Newmarket July 1, the twelve being sold at an average of about $3,700. The top price was $10,150 for a colt by Gallinule out of a club and it will be some days before he is in condition again to ride. Jones will probably be ruled off by the local officials for the assault.

CHICAGOAN BUYS YOUNG THOROUGHBREDS.

Lexington, Ky., July 17.—The first private sale of thoroughbred yearlings reported by a breeder of thoroughbreds since the passage of the anti-betting laws in New York and Louisiana, was made by Colonel Milton Young of McGrathiana Stud to K. L. Well of Chicago today. The four yearlings bought by Mr. Well will be broken at Hawthorne, for which point they were headed tonight. They are as follows: Bay colt, by Woolsthorpe—Splendid; brown filly, half-sister to Boserian, by Woolsthorpe—Princess Bowling; black colt, by Westminster—Hand Bell, by Hanover; bay colt, by Inspector B.—Dictyna. Mr. Well campaigned a small string of horses prior to the closing of the Chicago tracks in 1905. His purchase at this time is taken here as an indication of confidence in the revival of racing in Chicago next year.

QUEBEC MEETING MAY BE "BLOOMER."

Toronto, Ont., July 17.—Frank J. Bryan is the latest official who has refused to accept the position of judge at the coming Quebec meeting. In Montreal feeling is decidedly opposed to the experiment, which all the well-known racing men are avoiding and which is expected to result disastrously. The press agent stories which were imposed on the Toronto papers appear to have been built largely on imagination.

LOCKE LAW'S ACTION IN LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La., July 17.—Saturday will be the last day of bookmaking on a Louisiana race track. The Locke law goes into effect on Monday and the Louisiana track will drop the booking system on Saturday. It is said that the track will be run without betting to see if the gate receipts will pay expenses. That is to say there will be no betting other than among individuals who come to the races.

Winner—R. f. by Hastings—Nineveh (trained by F. Luzader).

Went to post at 2:43. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Nancy ran in behind Prince Hohenlohe to the stretch, then caught him in the stretch and won going away. Prince Hohenlohe, a good mud runner, dashed to the front at the start and easily set the pace for six furlongs, then tired. Grevilla was easily best of the others, but could never get to the leaders. Royal Legend and Leo Paul were caught in a jam at the start and crowded back. Raining Leaves ran fairly well. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Scratched—75906 Showman, 105; 75910 Restoration, 103.

Overweights—Nancy, 1 1/2 pounds; Grevilla, 1; Royal Legend, 2; Kildare, 1.

76020 SECOND RACE—About 2 Miles. Steeplechase. (75945—4:28 1/4—125.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $310.

Winner—R. f. by Flatlands—Lizzie M. by Bolus (trained by T. F. Coles).

Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third easily. Lizzie Flat showed much the most speed, but fenced badly and all but fell three or four times during the race, still was eased up at the finish. Sam Parmer moved up with a rush after taking the tenth jump and appeared like an easy winner until after taking the thirteenth jump, where he quit very suddenly. Lights Out was hard ridden most of the way, but could never get up. Bob Alone and Bank Holiday were pulled up after taking the fourth jump. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Scratched—75851 Hoyle, 100; 75871 Paradise Queen, 101; 75907 Settonia, 99; 75948 Lady Gore, 105.

Overweights—Patriot, 2 pounds; High Hat, 1 1/2; Autumn Maid, 2; Lazarus, 2.

Winner—B. c. by Ben Brush—Sandy (trained by J. W. May).

Went to post at 3:29. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Patriot moved up with a rush on the turn out of the backstretch and, rushing into a commanding lead, was under a pull all of the last sixteenth. Pleaseing moved up gamely on the outside on the backstretch, but could never get to the leader. High Hat broke slowly and was under a drive all of the last quarter. Hawkwing closed a big gap. Autumn Maid lacked speed. Ramble showed early speed, but quit badly in the last quarter. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—(75851) Hoyle, 100; 75871 Paradise Queen, 101; 75907 Settonia, 99; 75948 Lady Gore, 105.

Winner—B. c. by Jean Bereaud—Marshetta (trained by W. E. Phillips).

Went to post at 3:55. At post minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Tom Dolan was waited with until rounding the far turn, then moved up gamely on the outside and, fighting it out with Lad of Langden through the last quarter, won in the last stride. Lad of Langden left the start with a rush and set the pace for six furlongs, then tired, but held on well. Petulant tired after going a good half mile. Goldie was unable to extend himself in the going. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—(75849) Lady Esther, 105; (75985) Servile, 80; 75985 Blue Lee, 93; 75853 Dennis Stafford, 93; 75968 Imboden, 98; (75912) Arrow Swift, 92.

Winner—B. c. by Hastings—Futile (trained by J. H. McCormick).
Went to post at 2:27. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Tileing was forwardly reserved from the start and drew out when straightened for home and won as his rider pleased. Kentucky Beau outbroke and outpaced the others for six furlongs and held on persistently in the closing drive. Ellisdale, after nearest and strenuous pursuit for the first half, closed up well at the end and just failed to get up for third place. Easton was well up throughout, but outclassed. The winner was entered for $1,200; no bid.
Scratched—75907 D'Arkle, 103; 75959 Disobedient, 103.
Overweights—Grace Cameron, 1 pound.

PERSONAL LIBERTY LEAGUE STILL GROWS.

One Branch in Brooklyn with Ten Thousand Members—Sentiment in Its Favor.

New York, July 17.—Ten thousand members of the Personal Rights Protective League enrolled in one branch conveys the impression that this movement is to play no small part in the coming election.

It was at the meeting of the Personal Rights Protective League of America held Tuesday at the offices of Vennette F. Pelletreau & Co., 186 Remsen street, Brooklyn, that this enrollment of ten thousand and new members was reported, together with the announcement by the secretary that applications were being made at the rate of five hundred a day. At this meeting the following officers were appointed for the year: Lawton B. Garside, attorney and counselor at law, president; A. Rogers Lee, of V. F. Pelletreau & Co., vice-president; George A. Hann, secretary, and Theophilus Gilman, of the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, treasurer. Directors Brown, Hunter and Lee were appointed a committee to superintend the distribution of buttons. Everywhere the same enthusiasm over the cause of personal liberty is being developed among the men of New York, who are growing restive under the restraints and restrictions of narrow-minded, oppressive legislation. It is known that at this time the Personal Rights League can muster fifty thousand men and before election day will be able to control votes enough to make the personal liberty issue the strongest of the campaign.

The work of preparing for a stirring campaign is going steadily on. In lack of other issues in what promises to be a colorless campaign the personal liberty issue in New York will be a vivid relief.

The character of the men who are daily sending in applications for membership is of itself a guarantee of the character of the league. New York has become fully aroused to the necessity of protecting the city against continued legislation prejudicial to its best interests and thousands who rarely take an interest in politics are becoming enthusiastic over the promising development of the sentiment in favor of a greater and broader spirit of personal liberty in this town.

The merchants are becoming especially interested and are daily giving evidence of their interest in their letters to the secretary of the league. The belief that New York has outgrown the narrow provincialism to which it would be restricted by upstate legislators has developed into an aggressive resentment against the Hughes regime and all it stands for.

When Colonel Franklin Bartlett returns from his trip abroad he will find the preliminary work of the organization well under way and will be ready to take up the active work of the campaign for personal liberty to be fought this fall.

A poll of the board of aldermen has shown that with few exceptions that body is almost wholly in sympathy with the movement for a greater measure of personal liberty in New York, and will be only too glad to take advantage of this sentiment in framing more liberal ordinances.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Singleton, 11 wins; Kirschbaum, 9, and Shriner, 8, lead the Battle riders, while Dick Williams, with $4,899; J. H. Brannon, $2,570 and "Toke" Ramsey, $2,030, are the chief winning owners.

Ex-jockey J. Gorman, who rode Victorious when the Terror colt won the first Queen's Plate under the black and yellow jacket of Mr. Seagram, is now driving the wagon that moves the starting gate from point to point at the Windsor race track.

William Dubois declares to start both Nealon and Charles Edward at Brighton Beach next week. Nealon will probably go to the post on Tuesday, while Charles Edward will face the barrier on Thursday. Neither has been to the races so far this year.

There was a rumor about Thursday that there would be a change of control in the Latonia Jockey Club before the time for the fall meeting rolls around. The interested ones, however, did not seem to know anything about it. Cincinnati Enquirer.

The queer will of F. S. P. Stow, of London, Eng., who died May 17, last, disposes of $1,751,700. Mr. Stow directs his son and heir not to keep or run race horses within twenty-one years of the testator's death, otherwise his interest in the estate will cease excepting an annuity of $2,500.

The eastern work-watchers now have James R. Keene's filly, Wedding Bells, as the stable crack, which is being saved for the Futurity. She is by Ben Brush—Runaway Girl, and a full sister therefore to Gretna Green. Runaway Girl is by Domino—Fair Vision and a half-sister to Trance and Peter Quince. Wedding Bells will be seen at Saratoga.

The father of jockey Sweet, who makes the engagements for jockey Gilbert, says that there was no ill-feeling between the boys and that stories of intentional rough riding by Gilbert were without warrant. He said that Gilbert had never tried to injure Sweet and that when the latter was thrown into the rail on the colt, Prudent, in a race on Monday, it was simply racing luck.

Congressman Joseph L. Rhinock is back from a hurried trip to New York. While there he spent an afternoon at Brighton Beach and he said he found things in pretty fair shape. He pronounced the oral betting all right, and that no one who was known had any difficulty placing a wager. As to the future of Latonia, he had nothing to say beyond making a guess that Latonia would apply for fall dates. Cincinnati Enquirer.

The noisy nuisance of the tip-seller, who bawls in the faces of the race-goers that he had "five straight winners on the card yesterday," and that for the investment of a quarter anyone can be put on the high road to fortune, has been abolished at Windsor. One of them, who refused to heed the first warning, was put in jail for twenty-four hours and the entire flock of bellowing nuisances immediately disappeared. Toronto Globe.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

Arthur W., Chicago. The bet was a draw.
P. N. N., Chicago. The place bet on St. Jeanne was a draw, there being no separate place or show betting.

W. C. H., Chicago. John E. Madden bred and raised Takahira, raced him at Washington last spring and subsequently sold him to his present owner.

F. C. B., Cleveland, O. Parole died January 1, 1903, at Tuxedo Park, N. Y. He was thirty years old, by Lexington—Maiden, the latter by Lexington—Kitty Clark.

Jack K., Cincinnati, Ohio. When a person makes a bet on a horse that is entered in two races, without naming the race, action is on the first race in which the horse starts.

H. Elsas, Harvey, Ill. No knowledge of such a price as 40 to 1 being offered against Sidney Lucas for the American Derby of 1900. The records show that he was always 20 to 1 in the betting.

M. E. W., Chicago. At Harlem, August 13, 1894, the three-year-old, Two O'Clock, finished second to Get There in a dash of a mile and seventy yards, but was disqualified for carrying overweight.
